CATALOGUE 2027

WELCOME

Hello,

And welcome to my 2027 catalogue for you my friends and clients. I hope you enjoy this hard-copy version, designed and made in Victoria!

Last year, I was very fortunate to meet the lovely Carmen Tarascio who again represents my brand perfectly and wears my jewels beautifully. This year I have been introduced to Louise Macdonald; a truly brilliant milliner here in Melbourne. The collaboration of Carmen and Louise, together with my jewels, speaks for itself in the images you are about to see.

My new collection includes a range of beautiful green/yellow Sapphires, and gems of different shapes and cuts. The gorgeous, tumbled Lavender Amethysts on page 3 are just a joy, and I simply love the extraordinary Lemon Citrine necklace on page 19!

Of course, there are estate pieces too and as many of you would know being such a fan of brooches there are quite an array for you to choose from.

Finally, I am sure you will agree that the stunning carved pink Tourmaline, Diamond and briolette Tourmaline earrings on the front cover are a real showstopper! They are the sort of earrings where no other jewels have to be worn with them, as these say it all.

Wishing you all the very best for 2027 and with many thanks for your continued support and friendship.

Warmly,

Adrian Dickens

TWO-TONE GOLD

I have always been a fan of two-tone jewellery. My Italian Omega necklaces continue to be very popular and can be supplied in 18ct or 14ct gold. The amazing 18ct two tone bracelet was probably made in the '80s and yet is a good as new.
